Keynote - Chris Munro-Growth Coaching International

Join us at the ACEL Leaders Connect event, featuring a keynote address by Chris Munro Growth Coaching International.

The first event of our series will focus on the theme “Leading in Your Ecosystem,” providing valuable insights into effective leadership within diverse educational environments.

Following the keynote, a distinguished panel of leaders from independent, Catholic, and government schools will share their experiences and strategies for fostering growth and collaboration in their respective institutions.

Leaders Panel

- Michael Woolhouse - Head of Health and PE -Mc Kinnon Secondary College
- Damian Bernardo - Deputy Principal Learning and Teaching -Thomas Carr College
- Kara Baxter - Dean of Teaching and Learning -Strathcona Girls Grammar
- Dr Charlotte Forwood - Director of Learning Design & Development-Camberwell Girls Grammar

This event promises to be an enriching opportunity for educational leaders to connect, learn, and enhance their leadership skills

Light refreshments and networking for leaders will occur after the keynote and panel discussion.

For regional members if you would like to attend the Leaders Connect, Sacred Heart College Geelong will also host an online viewing of the session and networking opportunities.
